

Camp Blessing Intern Application Form

Since 1963

"An Experiment in Christian Living."

Job Description

Camp Blessing is accepting applications for summer interns. This paid internship is assigned according to the camp schedule for the year. Interns work as counselors at a variety of camps. Responsibilities change from week to week and are determined by the Camp Director. Typical responsibilities include leading daily worship services, preparing materials for lessons or crafts, assisting in the kitchen, recreational activities, and light camp maintenance. Summer interns will serve the needs of the campers, grow spiritually and gain leadership skills. Become a Blessing and receive a Blessing at Camp Blessing. Travel expenses to and from camps and conferences are provided.

Please read the "Expectations" on the Camp Blessing website and turn in that sheet along with this form/application.

Deadlines & Notification

The Intern Application, letter of recommendation, and signed expectations sheet should be turned in by March 31st. Applicants will be notified of their acceptance by April 15th.

Eligibility & Qualifications

Applicants must be 20 years of age or older by August 31 or must be one year post high school.

Applicants must be dedicated to serving God and others, have accepted Jesus Christ as Savior, and have had past involvement with Camp Blessing or other related activities.

To Apply

Please use this checklist to ensure all portions of the application are completed.

- Pray about the idea of serving as an intern.
- Letter of Recommendation (see details below)
- Complete application
- Read and sign "Expectations" sheet

Letter of Recommendation

One letter of recommendation is required from an individual who is familiar with your Christian character and service history. This person should not be a relative. The letter may arrive separately from the application, as long as deadlines are met.
